Ccc Numb. 1282.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, May 24. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 28.

Vienna, May 15.

THE 13th Count Rechteren's Secretary went Poſt from hence for Tirnau, with the Emperor's Ratification of the Prolongation of the Amneſtice. During this Ceſſation of Arms, the Poſts will go and come from Hungary as in Times of Peace; and we are inform'd that the Veſſels which were lately ſent from hence, laden with Ammunition and Proviſions for the Magazines of Raab, Comorra, Gran, and Buda, and which ſtop'd at Presbourg becauſe the Malecontents would not ſuffer them to paſs lower down the Danube, are now gone forward from thence, the Malecontents having been prevail'd upon to give Aſſurances that they will not meddle with them. Mr. Stepney, ſet out from hence on Thurſday laſt, to take poſſeſſion of the Principality of Mindelheim in the Name of the Duke of Marlborough: But his Excellency will return time enough to be at Tirnau the 25th Inſtant, at the Opening of the Conferences for ſetting on Foot the Treaty of Accommodation with the Malecontents. The Prince of Lorrain, Biſhop of Oſnabrug, who is to aſſiſt likewiſe at thoſe Conferences, as the Emperor's firſt Plenipotentiary, has already ſent his Baggage thither. General Merci arriv'd here t'other Day Poſt from the Upper Rhine; and being admitted to an Audience of the Emperor, gave him an Account on the part of the Prince of Baden, of the State of Affairs on that Side, and remonſtrated to him the Neceſſity of ſending ſpeedy Succours to that Prince, to enable him to make Head againſt the Enemy.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated May 29.

Ratiſbon, May 26. The Emperor has ſignified to the Diet of the Empire, that having conferr'd the Title and Dignity of a Prince of the Empire on the Duke of Marlborough, he deſires that the Deputies of that Prince may have Seſſion and Voice in the College of Princes.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated May 28.

From the Camp at Stohlhoffen, May 21. The Enemy, who have their Head Quarter at Spire, appear to have a Deſign to paſs the Rhine, having a good number of Boats ready on that River. To Day the Prince of Baden has detach'd 14 Battallions and 18 Squadrons towards Philipsbourg, to obſerve the Motions of the Enemy. The Troops of Hanover have not yet joyn'd us: Nor are thoſe of Heſſe arriv'd: In the mean time we have great need of Reinforcements, to enable us to oppoſe the Attempts of the Enemy. Some Priſoners of the Garriſon of Haguenau, that are come hither on their Parole from Strasbourg, report, that that Garriſon defended it ſelf with great Courage, till a Breach was made in it wide enough for 30 Men in Front to mount, and that the Beſiegers loſt at leaſt 800 Men in that Siege, kill'd or wounded.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 28.

From the Camp at Stolhoffen, May 22. The Enemy keep Men at Work to make a Line from Croon-Weyſſenbourg to Lauterbourg, from thence along the Rhine to Spire, and from thence to Neuſtad. Their Army is at preſent encamp'd along the Rhine, the Right Wing being extended to Medelheim, and the Left to Spire, where the Marſhal de Villars has his Head Quarters. He gives out he will cauſe a Bridge to be laid over the Rhine, with Boats that he has provided, aſſoon as he has receiv'd his Artillery, in order to paſs that River and lay Siege to Philipsbourg: But he will find that a difficult Enterprize, becauſe the Duke of Wirtemberg is poſted on the Side of the Rhine over againſt Spire, with part of his Troops and a good Number of Cannon. The Elector Palatine's Troops are poſted along the Rhine from Manheim to Philipsbourg.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 28.

Strasbourg, May 19. The Marſhal de Villars is march'd to Billikum within a League of Landau. All the heavy Cannon that was found in Haguenau, was ſent Yeſterday from thence for the Army, with a great many Waggons loaded with Ammunition. 'Tis not doubted Siege will be forthwith laid to Landau, which Place is already ſhut up ſo that nothing can paſs in or out of it. Our Troops ſuffer very much by the rainy Weather. The Enemy in the Lines of Stolhoffen are encreas'd to 18 or 19000 Men.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated May 28.

Letters from Cologne of the 25th of this Month, ſay the Pruſſian Troops appointed to ſerve under the Duke of Marlborough, were at that Time encamp'd in the County of Marck near Dorſten and Eſſen.

From the Paris Letter, dated May 24.

Paris, May 24. Letters from Piemont adviſe, that the Duke de la Feuillade came before Turin the 13th Inſtant, and poſted his Troops much in the ſame manner they were laſt Year. That an Intrenchment was begun from the Doria to the Po below the City, which would be perfected in 6 Days: And that the Marquis de Gevaudan being arriv'd with 13 Battallions at Pianezza, would paſs the Doria there the 15th. In the mean time Letters from Grenoble adviſe, that the Council, Courts of Juſtice, and the chief of the Citizens of Turin, having repreſented to the Duke of Savoy, on their Knees and with Tears in their Eyes, the Danger to which he was going to expoſe his Family and People, there was ſome hopes his Royal Highneſs yielding to ſuch powerful Remonſtrances, would hearken to an Accommodation. The Chevalier de Nangis, who brought the News of the Expedition on the Iſlands of St. Chriſtopher and Nevis, has receiv'd a Gratification of 6000 Livres.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seatons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as abovesaid for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.
